University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Since its founding in 1867, the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign has earned a reputation as an institution of international stature. Its distinguished faculty, outstanding resources, breadth of academic programs and research disciplines, and large and diverse student body constitute an educational community ideally suited for scholarship and research.

Known internationally for its achievements in research and graduate study, the University enrolls some 9,000 graduate and professional students in more than 100 disciplines, and attracts more than $184 million a year in private, state, and federal grants and contract appropriations. In recent years, a significant amount of this support has been directed toward the creation and development of major centers for advanced research and study, including more than $100 million for the National Center for Supercomputing Applications and the Center for Supercomputing Research and Development. Together, these two centers have established the University as a recognized world leader in the fields of supercomputing architecture, design, and applications. In 1989, the University inaugurated the Arnold O. and Mabel M. Beckman Institute for Advanced Science and Technology. The most visible example of the University's commitment to interdisciplinary study, the institute brings together investigators from several disciplines for the study of human and artificial intelligence.

The University's research mission shares prominence with a fundamental commitment to undergraduate education. Nearly 27,000 undergraduate students are enrolled in 10 undergraduate divisions, together offering more than 4,000 courses in more than 150 fields of study. The divisions include the College of Agriculture, College of Applied Life Studies, College of Commerce and Business Administration, College of Communications, College of Education, College of Engineering, College of Fine and Applied Arts, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Institute of Aviation, and School of Social Work.

About 30 percent of the campus' graduates choose to continue their education in graduate or professional schools. Typically, 90 percent of graduates who apply to law school are accepted; 78 percent are accepted to medical school.

Academic resources on the campus are among the finest in the world. The University of Illinois Library at Urbana-Champaign is the third largest academic collection in the nation, housing more than 11 million items in the main library and 38 departmental libraries. Only Harvard and Yale have larger collections. The Library's computerized cataloging system was the first in the world to serve as the primary access to a large academic library. Users can access the Library's collections from more than 200 computer terminals placed throughout the campus.

The University supports a long tradition in computer-aided education. PLATO, the largest computer-based instructional system in the world, was developed at the University of Illinois nearly 30 years ago. Today, more than 65,000 users worldwide take advantage of 22,000 instructional material files at 2,200 terminals each day. NovaNET, the University's newest full-service computer network, delivers computer-aided instruction via satellite.

In recent years, the University has entered into cooperative agreements with such corporations as IBM, AT&T, Apple, and Zenith, placing 8,000 computer terminals in classrooms, residence halls, and campus libraries for use in classroom instruction, study, and research. Project EXCEL (Excellence in Computer-aided Education and Learning), an IBM-supported program initiated in 1984, encourages the development of curriculum software packages in undergraduate classrooms across the campus.

Among the University's most significant resources is its talented and highly respected faculty. More than 80 faculty members belong to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the National Academy of Sciences, or the National Academy of Engineering. Nine scientists have received the National Medal of Science and 42 have received the Presidential Young Investigators Award while on the faculty. Professor Emeritus John Bardeen won the Nobel Prize in physics twice—the only person ever to do so.

Altgeld Hall is on the Register of Historic Buildings and contains the University bell tower

Another prime indicator of the University's excellence is the success of its alumni. Eight graduates have won Nobel Prizes for the United States, and another 15 have won Pulitzer Prizes. Eleven chief executives of Fortune 500 companies are alumni of the campus.

A major center for the arts, the campus attracts dozens of nationally and internationally renowned artists each year to its widely acclaimed Krannert Center for the Performing Arts. Designed by alumnus Max Abramovitz, an architect of New York City's Lincoln Center, the facility has four indoor theaters and an outdoor amphitheater. Together, they host more than 275 performances each year, including those by major symphony orchestras, classical and modern ballet companies, and individual artists such as Luciano Pavarotti, Jean-Pierre Rampal, and Issac Stern.

The University also supports three major museums: the Krannert Art Museum, second only to the Art Institute of Chicago among Illinois public art museums; the World Heritage Museum; and the Museum of Natural History.

Other major facilities include the Assembly Hall (16,000 seats), Memorial Stadium (69,200 seats), and the Intramural-Physical Education Building, one of the largest recreational facilities of its kind on a university campus.

Located in east-central Illinois in the two cities of Urbana and Champaign (population 100,000), the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign is the state of Illinois' flagship public university.

Stanley O. Ikenberry

President

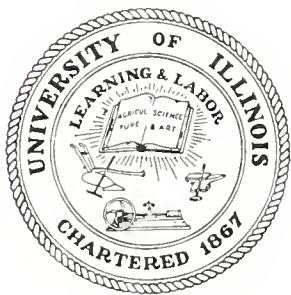

Stanley O. Ikenberry was appointed President of the University of Illinois in 1979. Since then he has guided the University's triple mission of teaching, research, and public service toward the goal of making the University of Illinois the best public university in America. His leadership at Illinois is marked by an exceedingly strong commitment to the human resources of the University and to the humanizing value of the University for society.

President Ikenberry has responsibility for all aspects of University operation, including campuses at Urbana-Champaign and Chicago, an enrollment of about 60,000 students, and an annual operating budget of more than $1 billion.

President Ikenberry received his Ph.D. in higher education research from Michigan State University in 1960. He taught at Michigan State and at West Virginia University before joining the Center for the Study of Higher Education at the Pennsylvania State University in 1969. He had risen to senior vice president when he was named president at the University of Illinois. He holds honorary degrees from Michigan State University, Millikin University, Illinois College, and Rush University. He is also an Honorary Alumnus of Penn State.

A holder of numerous corporate and civic board memberships, he is co-chairman of the Governor's (Illinois) Commission on Science and Technology, past chairman of both the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges and the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, a member of the board of directors of the American Council on Education, and executive board member of the Association of American Universities. Since June, 1987, Ikenberry has been chairman of the Council of Ten, which is composed of the chief executive officers of the Big Ten Conference universities.

Dr. Ikenberry lives with his wife, Judith, in the President's House in Urbana. The Ikenberrys have three sons.

Morton Weir

Chancellor

Morton W. Weir became the campus' fifth chancellor in April of 1988. Weir joined the Urbana-Champaign faculty in 1960 and has served in a variety of faculty and administrative posts since then. Before assuming the leadership of the campus, Weir served as vice president for academic affairs, the senior academic officer for both U of I campuses, at Urbana-Champaign and Chicago.

Weir is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and member of the Society for Research in Child Development, Phi Kappa Phi and Sigma Xi. He has served as editor, member or commissioner for a number of professional journals and organizations. He currently is a member of the national advisory committee of the Ounce of Prevention Fund; on the board of directors of Voices for Illinois Children; and executive commissioner of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools' Commission on Institutions of Higher Education.

A native of Canton, Illinois, Weir received his bachelor's degree, with honors, from Knox College in Galesburg in 1955. He earned a master of arts in 1958 and a doctorate in experimental psychology in 1959, both from the University of Texas at Austin. In 1977, Knox College awarded him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree.

Weir and his wife, Cecelia, have three children.

Board of Trustees

Members of the Board of Trustees are elected by the citizens of Illinois. The trustees constitute the governing body of the University. The trustees, who serve without pay, approve the University's budget and formulate general University policies. Each trustee is elected to a six-year term. The Governor of the State of Illinois is an ex-officio member of the Board.

Life on Campus

Learning and participating are important outside, as well as inside, the classroom. And at the University of Illinois, the opportunities are equally limitless in both places.

Housing? First-rate residence halls with good food, the nation's largest fraternity and sorority system, independent housing and a wide range of apartments provide broad choices of where and how to live.

Activities? More than 700 student organizations provide an outlet for every interest, from the philanthropies of Volunteer Illini Projects to the rock music of student radio station WPGU. There are more than 40 student organizations for minority interests.

Sports and recreation? The Intramural-Physical Education Building is one of the largest complexes on any campus, with four gymnasiums, 23 handball/racquetball courts, weight and exercise equipment, indoor and outdoor pools, tennis courts and more. The U of I has one of the most comprehensive intramural sports programs in the nation. If the great outdoors is more to your liking, the university's 1,500-acre Allerton Park includes sculpture gardens, formal gardens and natural woodlands.

Culture and entertainment? The domed Assembly Hall seats more than 16,000 for rock concerts, ice shows, circuses, Broadway musicals and, of course, Illini basketball. Beautifully restored Foellinger Auditorium on the Quad seats 1,750 for concerts, films and speakers. And the Krannert Center for the Performing Arts — "Arguably the best performing arts facilities in the nation," according to the education editor of Time Magazine — holds four theaters for plays, dance and concerts by such famed names as the Chicago Symphony and Itzhak Perlman.

Off campus? Champaign and Urbana, with a population of 100,000, offer shopping, restaurants, movie theaters, night spots and many other big-city amenities. Yet, they retain a Midwestern college-town atmosphere.

Academics

In academics, as in athletics, opportunity and support are vital to success. The University of Illinois offers the best of both.

Opportunity comes in myriad forms, including:

■ More than 4,000 courses in more than 150 fields of study. "A mind-boggling variety of majors is available," wrote Gene Hawes, author of The College Board Guide to Going to College While Working.

■ A distinguished faculty. Twice in the last five years, the U of I has led the nation in number of Fulbright Scholars. Illinois faculty members have been named Presidential Young Investigators 31 times since the awards were instituted in 1984. Four members of the faculty have won the National Medal of Science.

■ The nation's largest public university library, with more than 7 million volumes and more than 11 million items.

■ Student access to more than 8,000 computer workstations in classrooms, libraries, residence halls and the Illini Union.

Assistance is available to all students to help them make the most of these vast resources. Student-athletes come under the special program of the academic services office, overseen by a full-time academic counselor. It includes educational evaluation, advising, classroom performance monitoring, scheduled study halls, tutoring and effective use of university facilities.

It is little wonder that the 1988 edition of Selective Guide to Colleges, by Edward B. Fiske, education editor of the New York Times, awards the U of I five stars, its highest ranking, and describes it as "a giant among academic institutions, ranking among the world's great universities."

The Illini Union serves as a hub for student activity and anchors the north end of the Quad

The National Center for Supercomputing Applications and the Center for Supercomputing Research and Development have established the University as a world leader in supercomputing, architecture, design and applications.

■ COVERING THE FIGHTING ILLINI

The forerunner of the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics (DIA), the University of Illinois Athletic Association, was chartered in 1892 as a not-for-profit corporation of the state of Illinois; it was charged with overseeing and conducting the University's intercollegiate athletic programs and associated support services, and operated as a separate entity.

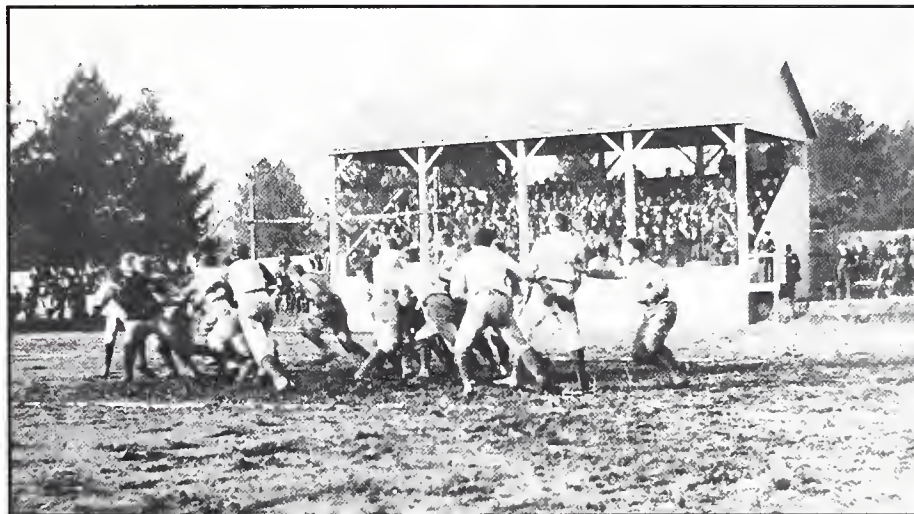

After the state legislature voted in June, 1989 to bring UI athletics within the University proper, the DIA assumed the functions and responsibilities of the Athletic Association. The Division of Intercollegiate Athletics began operations officially July 1.

The Director of Athletics is the Division's chief executive officer, and reports directly to the Chancellor of the Urbana-Champaign campus. The Chancellor has final say regarding the athletic program in all areas except for budget and approval of major appointments. Those decisions rest with the University of Illinois Board of Trustees.

The Athletic Board serves the DIA in an advisory capacity. It is composed of 17 members, 14 of which are voting members (eight faculty, four alumni and two students); the three non-voting (ex-officio) members are from the University administration.

The faculty and student members are nominated by the Urbana-Champaign Senate and selected by the Chancellor for consideration by the President of the University and the Board of Trustees.

DIA revenues are derived from three major sources: gate receipts from football and men's basketball, television rights fees for those two sports, and donations to the Grants/In/Aid (athletic scholarship) program.

The first Illinois home game was also the school's first football victory as Coach Scott Williams' team defeated Illinois Wesleyan 12-6 on Nov. 27, 1890.

Director of Athletics / Head Football Coach

John Mackovic

(Wake Forest '65, Miami of Ohio '67)

In less than a 12-month period of time, from when he first inherited a losing football program, John Mackovic has accomplished the following:

- He assembled one of the top coaching staffs in the country.
- He turned Illinois into a Big Ten football contender resulting in the Illini's first bowl game since 1985.
- He was named Illinois' Director of Athletics.

It does make one wonder what more good fortunes lie ahead for Illini faithful in the next 12 months.

Mackovic was named Illinois' football coach Feb. 3, 1988, and took over a team that was coming off back-to-back 4-7 and 3-7-1 seasons. His first squad at Illinois captured six wins and a tie in its last nine games of the regular season and played Michigan for the Big 10 title before earning a berth in the All American Bowl.

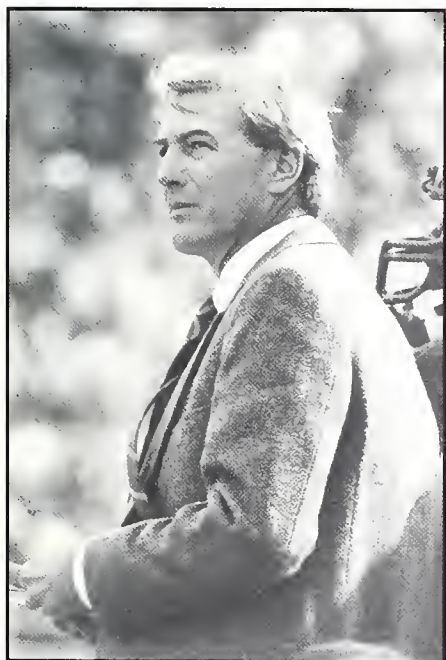

For leading this Illini team out of the doldrums and into a championship-contending position, Mackovic was honored by both his Big Ten coaching peers (UPI) and by members of the media (AP) as the Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year. It marked only the second time in conference history that a first-year coach had captured the prestigious Dave McClain Coach-of-the-Year honor (the other was Earle Bruce of Ohio State in 1979).

Chancellor Morton Weir and other University of Illinois administrators made a choice for the vacated Director of Athletics position by naming Mackovic to the dual role of A.D./Football Coach Dec. 23, 1988.

John Mackovic was named Director of Athletics to go along with his head football coaching duties

A native of Barberton, Ohio, Mackovic attended Wake Forest, and was a starter at quarterback in a backfield that included his close friend, the late Brian Piccolo. Following his graduation from Wake Forest in 1965, Mackovic accepted a graduate assistant position with fellow Barberton native, Bo Schembechler, at Miami of Ohio. After completing work on his master's degree in educational administration, Mackovic served one season as basketball coach at Fort Knox, Ky. with the U.S. Army.

John Mackovic was the first Illinois rookie coach to lead the Fighting Illini to a bowl game

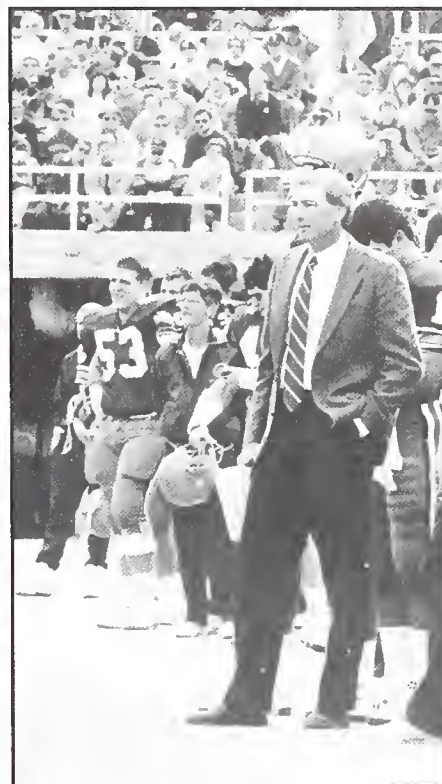

Mackovic returned to coaching football in 1968 when he took over the Army's plebe team. During the next eight seasons, he spent time as an assistant at San Jose State, Army (once again), and Arizona. In 1977, he joined Purdue's staff as offensive coordinator where he was responsible for developing the skills of all-American quarterback Mark Herrmann.

John Mackovic was named Big 10 Coach of the Year after leading the Fighting Illini to a third place finish in the conference race

After eight seasons as an assistant coach, Mackovic earned his first head coaching spot at his alma mater, Wake Forest. In his second season with the Deacons, he led them to an 8-3 mark which produced the school's first appearance ever in the national rankings and a spot in the Tangerine Bowl, only the third bowl game participation by a Wake Forest team.

Following the 1980 season at Wake Forest, Mackovic gave up his head coaching duties for the opportunity to work under Tom Landry in the Dallas

John Mackovic has taken losing programs at both the collegiate and pro levels and turned them into winners.

Cowboys organization as the quarterback coach. Two successful years with the Cowboys produced NFL playoff berths and saw Danny White emerge as a Pro Bowl quarterback.

In 1983, at the age of 39, Mackovic was selected as the head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs. He quickly took a floundering offense that was among the NFL's worst and turned it into one of the league's most prolific attacks, finishing his first season with the third best passing attack in the NFL. Three rebuilding years paid dividends in 1986 as the Chiefs posted a 10-6 record and earned the team's first NFL playoff appearance in 15 years. In doing so, Mackovic became one of the few coaches in John Mackovic's record of 6-5-1 in 1988 was the best for a first-year coach at Illinois since Ray Eliot finished 6-4 in 1942.

Mackovic has also been active in a number of civic and charity events, including serving as co-chairman of a Kansas City March of Dimes benefit dinner that generated more than $100,000 in proceeds to help fight birth defects. He has also played an active role in the Kansas and Missouri Special Olympics and is currently involved in the local March of Dimes.

Prior to accepting the position of head coach at Illinois, Mackovic served as president of the Cypress Professional Development Group, a consulting and training organization targeted to middle and upper-level management. He also founded and established his own company, Yes, Inc., a service-related organization directed to motivational speaking with radio and television exposure. He currently serves as president of Yes, Inc.

Assistant Coaches

STEVE BERNSTEIN
Defensive Backfield Coach

(Occidental College '67, Utah State '72)

Steve Bernstein begins his second year at Illinois as coach of the defensive backfield. This marks the 16th consecutive year that Bernstein has served as a collegiate coach at that position, and is his 21st season as an assistant coach on the college level.

Bernstein came to Illinois from Colorado where he had served the previous three seasons. Prior to his stint with the Buffaloes, Bernstein spent seven years at Virginia Tech. Five of the seven years at Virginia Tech and the three campaigns at Colorado, Bernstein served with Lou Tepper, current Illini defensive coordinator.

Before taking the job at VTU, Bernstein was with the Wake Forest football staff for five years, the last four of which were as defensive backfield coach. He also had coaching stops at Utah State (1970-72) and with the Quantico Marines (1969).

Bernstein was a running back at Occidental College in Los Angeles, earning honorable mention all-American NAIA honors his senior season. He graduated from Occidental in 1967 with a degree in physical education, and later earned his master's degree from Utah State in 1972.

Bernstein served in the U.S. Marines from 1967-69 in Vietnam. He was a platoon commander for the Marines where he received a Purple Heart for combat duty. He held the rank of captain when he left the Marines in 1969.

Bernstein was born and raised in Los Angeles. He and his wife, Carolyn, have a son, Todd, who is attending Virginia Tech. The Bernsteins reside in Champaign.

GREG COLBY
Defensive Assistant & Special Teams Coach

(Illinois '75)

The only University of Illinois graduate on the football staff, Greg Colby starts his second year with the Illini with added responsibilities as special teams coach.

Colby was a starter for the Illini as a sophomore in 1971, finishing as the team's third leading tackler from his rover slot position. In addition to earning three letters in football, Colby was also a standout on the Illinois baseball team, leading the team in RBIs for two years, and serving as captain his senior season.

Following his graduation from Illinois in 1975 when he earned a degree in physical education, Colby spent two seasons on the Illini football staff as a graduate assistant. In 1979, he became head coach at Danville Schlarman High School, and led the school to Class 2A state championships in both 1980 and '81. Following a four-year stint as head coach at Naperville Central High School (where he never had a losing season), Colby served as a graduate assistant at Michigan State for two years, including the Spartan's 1987 Big Ten champions and Rose Bowl Game victors.

Colby is a native of Danville, Ill. where he was a multi-sport athlete as a prep, earning honors in football and baseball.

Colby and his wife Janet have two children, Matthew and Michael, and reside in Urbana.

GENE DAHLQUIST
Offensive Coordinator & Quarterback Coach

(Arizona '65, Boise State '67)

Gene Dahlquist begins his second season with dual responsibility as offensive coordinator and quarterback coach with Illinois.

Serving in both positions is anything but new to Dahlquist. Prior to his arrival at Illinois, Dahlquist served as offensive coordinator at Iowa State from 1983-86. He held both offensive coordinator and QB coach roles at Boise State for six years from 1977-82, as well as the last two seasons of his three-year stay at Oregon from 1974-76.

Dahlquist is a 1965 graduate of Arizona where he received a bachelor of science degree in education. He also holds a master's degree in physical education from Idaho State University.

After coaching on the high school level for one year, Dahlquist began his collegiate coaching career at Idaho State in 1968. He spent three seasons at ISU before moving on to Utah in 1971 where he inherited the wide receivers coaching position. He stayed with the Utes for three years before moving on to Oregon.

Dahlquist was a quarterback and punter at Arizona from 1960 to 1964. Following a brief stint with the Norfolk Neptunes of the Continental League, he became involved in coaching.

Dahlquist was raised in Mt. Prospect, Ill. and has two children, Stacey and Bret. Dahlquist resides in Champaign.

MIKE DEAL
Offensive Line Coach
(Indiana '70, '71)

A new member of the Illinois football coaching staff for 1989 is Mike Deal, who will have coaching responsibilities for the offensive line.

Deal comes to Illinois after spending the 1988 season as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Kansas State. KSU led the Big Eight Conference in passing last year. Prior to his three years at Kansas State, Deal served as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Marshall University for two years.

Deal began his collegiate coaching experience in 1978 at Wabash (Ind) College where he served as offensive coordinator for five years. During that time, Wabash posted a 42-3-1 record which included two undefeated seasons. He also spent a season as defensive backfield coach at Davidson (N.C.) College for one year.

Deal was a three-year letterman as a defensive back for Indiana during the 1967, '68 and '69 seasons. He participated in the Hoosiers' Rose Bowl Game win following their Big Ten championship in 1967, and he played in the Blue-Gray All-Star game and Senior Bowl at the conclusion of his senior year. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1970 and the following year earned his master's degree in the same field. He played briefly with the Washington Redskins in the early 70s.

Deal is a native of Hobart, Ind. He and his wife, Nancy, have a daughter, Tiffany.

BOB GAMBOLD
Outside Linebacker Coach
(Washington State '52)

Bob Gambold begins his seventh season at Illinois, with coaching responsibilities at the outside linebacker spot.

Gambold has served in various coaching capacities throughout his career as an assistant to the head coach, defensive coordinator and quarterback coach during his tenure at Illinois. He has 24 years of college coaching experience to go along with 11 years as a coach in the professional ranks.

Gambold was an assistant coach with the Houston Oilers for five years prior to joining the Illini staff in 1983. In addition, he coached with the Denver Broncos organization for six years, including their 1977 Super Bowl season.

Gambold was a standout in football and basketball at Washington State, lettering three years in both sports. He was the starting quarterback for the Cougars for two years and started at forward for the WSU basketball team for three straight seasons, winning All-Pac 10 Conference honors in both sports. He received his bachelor of science degree in physical education and history from Washington State in 1952. Last fall, Gambold was honored by Washington State when he was inducted into the Cougars' Hall of Fame.

Gambold played in the National Football League with the Chicago Cardinals and Philadelphia Eagles for three years. When he left the NFL in 1955, he began his coaching career at Everett (Wash.) Junior College where he served for two years. He then took a job at his alma mater as a quarterback and defensive backfield coach for five years before departing for Stanford where he coached quarterbacks, linebackers and defensive backs for nine seasons. Gambold then moved to a third Pac-10 Conference team, Oregon State, for two seasons coaching quarterbacks, including 1962 Heisman Trophy winner, Terry Baker.

Gambold and his wife, Shirley, have seven children, Valerie, Robin, Barry, Cheri, Victoria, Traci and Liese. The Gambolds reside in Champaign.

MICHAEL GODBOLT
Running Back Coach
(Boston College '78)

Michael "Bucky" Godbolt begins his second season coaching running backs at Illinois.

It marks the ninth consecutive year that Godbolt has served in that capacity on the collegiate level. Prior to his joining the Illini staff, Godbolt had served the previous seven football seasons as running backs coach with Boston College. In addition to coaching the running backs at BC, Godbolt also served as coach of the special teams. Three current NFL regulars learned under Godbolt while at Boston College — Troy Stradford of the Miami Dolphins, Kenny Bell of the Denver Broncos and Steve Strachan of the Los Angeles Raiders.

Last year, Godbolt helped mold the Illini's Keith Jones into a powerful, slashing type of runner who gained over 1,100 yards during the regular season, Illinois' first 1,000 yard rusher since 1984 and only the fourth Illini back ever to top the 1,000-yard mark. Jones thus became the 5th player to have reached the 1,000-yard plateau during Godbolt's eight years of coaching.

Godbolt is a Boston College graduate, having received his elementary education degree in 1978. He was a wide receiver for the Eagles from 1973-77 and still ranks among BC's top all-time leading receivers. He served as a graduate assistant at Dartmouth College in 1980 before returning to his alma mater as an assistant coach in 1981.

Godbolt is a native of Bethlehem, Penn. He and his wife, Patricia, have three children, Aaron John, Veronica Lynn and Jordan Phalen. The Godbolts reside in Champaign.

TIM HARKNESS
Wide Receiver & Tight End Coach

(Johnson C. Smith '77, Georgia State '79)

Tim Harkness enters his third season as an assistant coach with Illinois. Prior to his arrival in Champaign for the 1986 season, Harkness served two seasons as a graduate assistant at Alabama under Ray Perkins.

Harkness has a master's degree in business information systems from Georgia State University. He did his undergraduate work at Johnson C. Smith University, where he majored in accounting. While at Johnson C. Smith, Harkness earned four varsity football letters as an offensive guard. He was named co-captain of the team his senior season.

From 1977 to 1984, Harkness worked for IBM at the Kennedy Space Center in Florida (in addition to completing his graduate work at Georgia State). Harkness served as a system's software programmer and analyst on various space shuttles.

Harkness resides in Champaign.

DENNY MARCIN
Defensive Line Coach

(Miami of Ohio '64)

Denny Marcin joined the Illinois football staff in February of 1988, and thus enters his second season as coach of the defensive linemen.

Marcin brought extensive coaching experience with him to Illinois, having started in the coaching profession in 1964. He served as defensive coordinator at North Carolina from 1978 to 1986, at which time he was elevated to assistant head coach in addition to his defensive coordinator duties. During his ten years at North Carolina, the Tar Heels had a total of 24 defensive players move on to the National Football League. At the conclusion of the 1981 season, North Carolina ranked No. 1 in the nation in total defense (following the bowl games).

Prior to his ten-year stay at North Carolina, Marcin was an assistant coach at Miami, O. from 1974-77. He was named defensive coordinator in 1977, but departed for North Carolina that year when Miami Coach Dick Crum was named to the vacant Tar Heel post.

Marcin was graduated from Miami of Ohio in 1964, earning a bachelor of science degree in education. He was a member of the Redskins football team, playing both offensive and defensive guard. Marcin has also served as a wrestling official at the high school, college and professional levels.

Marcin is a native of Cleveland, Ohio. He and his wife, Betsey, have four children, Jeff, Denny, Melinda and Susie, and reside in Champaign.

LOU TEPPER
Defensive Coordinator &
 Inside Linebacker Coach

(Rutgers '67)

Lou Teppner returns for his second season with Illinois in the dual role of defensive coordinator and inside linebacker coach.

Tepper left a similar position at the University of Colorado to join the Illini staff in February of 1988. He had been with the Buffaloes since 1983 and had a title of assistant head coach when he departed Colorado. Teppner's influence with the Colorado defense paid immediate dividends as he took a unit that ranked among the lowest in the nation (No. 100) and improved it to the point where CU ranked 11th several seasons later.

Tepper will begin his 22nd season as a collegiate assistant coach this fall. There is little doubt that defense is his forte, as 14 of the previous 21 years has seen him in the role of a defensive coordinator. Illinois finished 3rd in the Big Ten and 28th in the NCAA in total defense during his first season with the Illini.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Pittsburgh in 1967. The following year he moved to New Hampshire where he coached running backs and linebackers at various times the next four years. In 1972 he accepted the defensive coordinator position at William & Mary where he stayed for six years. In 1978, Bill Dooley lured him to Virginia Tech to coach the linebackers, a job he held until 1983 when he joined Bill McCartney's staff at Colorado.

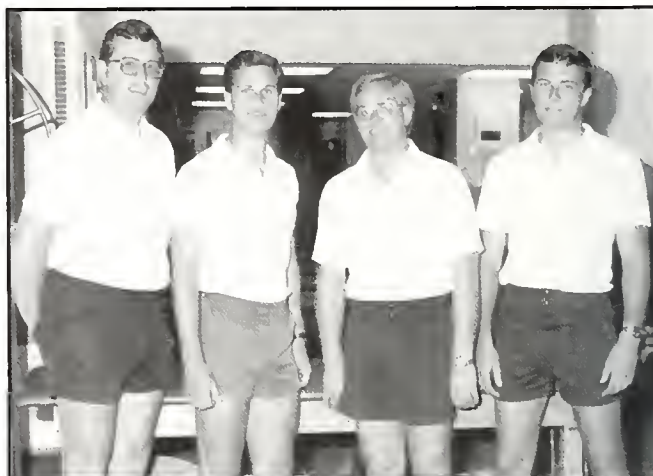

Tepper earned a physical education and English degree from Rutgers College in 1967. He was a three-year letterman at Rutgers as a defensive back, leading the team in interceptions as a junior and in total tackles his senior season.

Tepper is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) and is a native of Latrobe, Penn. He and his wife, Karen, have two children, Matthew and Stacy Ann, and reside in Champaign.

■ ILLINOIS FOOTBALL:
A HISTORY OF THE TEAM

■ COVERING THE FIGHTING ILLINI

1989 Prospectus

When talking about the outlook for the University of Illinois football program in 1989, one might ask the age-old question, "is the cup half-filled or half-empty?" In other words, one can take the optimistic approach and talk about Illinois' 18 returning starters from a year ago, an attractive but challenging schedule with the likes of Michigan and Ohio State at home and the road games at Southern California and Colorado; or the cup may appear half-empty, considering the loss of Keith Jones, who led the team in rushing, pass receiving and scoring and the view of the schedule which reveals that seven of the 11 opponents competed in bowl games last year and that five of those seven are likely to be listed in at least one preseason Top 20 poll.

With second-year Head Coach John Mackovic at the helm, one can rest assured that the Illini team will testify that the glass is half-filled. The team's confidence is a direct result of last season's effort which produced a third place tie in the Big Ten and a trip to the All American Bowl against Florida. And while a Gator touchdown in the closing minutes left the Illini on the short end of a 14-10 score, there were enough positive notes remaining from 1988 to carry over to this fall.

Offense

QUARTERBACK: On offense, the Illini return eight starters led by junior post-season honors candidates, quarterback Jeff George (6-4, 216, Jr.) and running back Howard Griffith (5-11, 220, Jr.). George, picked for the All-Big 10 second team by the Associated Press, threw for 2,257 yards and nine touchdowns with 58 percent passing accuracy. He had three consecutive games midway through the season in which he threw for more than 300 yards (each), and his 212 completions set a school record by a sophomore, eclipsing the previous best of 203 by Jack Trudeau in 1983. One of the coaching staff's main concerns will be to find a solid backup to George. Red-shirt freshmen Jeff Kinney (6-3, 192, Fr.) and Jason Verduzco (5-9, 181, Fr.) battled for the backup position in the spring with Kinney finishing strong in the spring game and apparently winning the spot. Offensive Coordinator Gene Dahlquist on George: "Now that Jeff has been in the system for a year, he feels much more comfortable with our offense. We were happy with his performance as a sophomore and expect greater things this season. We feel he is one of the top quarterbacks in the Big 10 and he fits especially well into our offensive attack."

All-Big 10 second-teamer Jeff George (11) and an experienced offensive line returns to lead what could be an explosive Illini attack.

RUNNING BACKS: Griffith is another player apparently ready for a big season after combining with 1988 Illini MVP Keith Jones for one of the Big 10's top running back duos. Griffith averaged an impressive 5.6 yards per carry on his way to 615 rushing yards and seven touchdowns. He also showed breakaway speed with 78 and 53-yard touchdown dashes during the season. Griffith gained a career-high 148 yards versus Utah, and had games of 116 and 85 yards versus Purdue and Washington State. He also finished as the third-leading receiver for Illinois in 1988 with 32 receptions. Ken Thomas (5-8, 180, Sr.), who red-shirted in 1988, appears ready to step in and help Griffith make up for the absence of Jones. The speedster from Milledgeville, GA was the Illini's second-leading rusher in 1987 with 268 yards including a 57-yard touchdown jaunt versus Arizona State. Red-shirt freshman Darren Boyer (5-10, 202) will provide backup to Thomas, while Victor Bowlay-Williams (5-11, 212, Sr.) will play behind Griffith. Two newcomers who could provide immediate help are Steve Feagin (6-0, 190, Fr.) and Wagner Lester (6-3, 200, Fr.). Dahlquist on Griffith: "Howard got off to a good start as a sophomore with a couple of 100-yard games. He adapted very well to his role as a blocker for Keith Jones. He proved to be a strong, effective runner and he surprised us with his pass-catching ability. We need him to shoulder more of the ball-carrying load this season."

RECEIVERS: The 1989 Illini receiving corp should be one of the strongest and deepest areas of the team. Six of last year's top seven receivers return, including three players who had more than 30 catches. Besides Griffith, Steven Williams (5-11, 167, Sr.) and Mike Bellamy (6-1, 194, Sr.) caught 38 and 31 passes respectively; and should combine with Shawn Wax (6-4, 179, Jr.) to provide George with plenty of talent to throw to in 1989. Speedsters Elbert Turner (5-11, 164, Jr.) and Gus Palma (5-11, 194, Jr.) should provide depth at the receiver position. Tight end Jeff Finke (6-5, 218, Jr.), who caught 25 passes last season before injuring his knee against Northwestern is expected to return in 1989. Dahlquist on Bellamy: "Mike proved last season that he is a legitimate big-play receiver. He earned the starting role at split end early in the year and improved from week to week. He took advantage of his opportunity and we expect him to build on that. He has the speed to be a deep threat." Dahlquist on Williams: "Steven is the senior member of our wide receiving corps who is one of the top receivers in the Big 10. He has good quickness and has developed into a good deep receiver".

OFFENSIVE LINE: The offensive line will have to replace two starters from last season, but should have the nucleus for another strong year. New assistant coach Mike Deal will anchor his line around center Curt Lovelace (6-3, 260, Jr.), who is one of the top returning centers in the Big 10. The left side of the line should remain intact with the return of Tim Simpson (6-3, 283, So.) at guard and Craig Schneider (6-4, 272, Sr.) at tackle. Dave Postmus (6-3, 296, Jr.), who tips the scales at almost 300 pounds, finished the spring ahead of Brad Hopkins (6-3, 279, So.) as the No. 1 right guard. Junior college transfer Cam Pepper (6-5, 277, Jr.) and Tony Laster (6-3, 263, So.) will battle it out for the starting spot at right tackle. Rich Herr (6-2, 264, Jr.), Ed Pedersen (6-8, 262, Jr.) and junior college transfer Jeff Demaske (6-4, 278, Jr.) will all provide depth in 1989. Dahlquist on Lovelace: "Curt stepped into the starting center position last season and showed us he belonged there. He has really improved his quickness and technique and is an All-Big 10 candidate." Dahlquist on Schneider: "Craig is a guy who made the change from guard to tackle and has played very well for us. He is a consistent player and we'll need his senior leadership on the offensive line."

Defense

DEFENSIVE LINE: On defense, the Illini have returning two of the top players at their position in the Big 10, if not the nation, in Darrick Brownlow (5-11, 239, Jr.) at linebacker and Mo Gardner (6-2, 244, Jr.) at nose tackle. The defensive line should be one of the league's best with Gardner, All-Big 10 second-teamer Mel Agee (6-5, 285, Jr.) and returning starter John Wachter (6-2, 247, Jr.). Gardner should be a contender for all-America honors and Lombardi and Outland Trophy Awards after strong showings as a freshman and sophomore. He has used his quickness and strength to garner 23 tackles-for-loss over the past two seasons. Defensive Coordinator Lou Tepper on Gardner: "Mo is not an imposing-looking football player, but he certainly gets the job done at nose guard. He was deserving of his first-team All-Big 10 selection last season and I feel he is one of the top nose guards in the country. We feel he has the tools to be a first-team All-America before he is through at Illinois. When you get down to it...Mo Gardner makes the plays." Tepper on Agee: "Mel has a lot of physical tools although he had to fight through some injuries last season. He was dominating at times and we think he has the talent to be a first-team All-Big 10 selection."

Illinois has three of the Big 10's top 15, and six of its seven top receivers from 1988 returning in '89

Led by Butkus Award candidate Darrick Brownlow and three-year starter Steve Glasson, Illinois has one of the best linebacking corps in the Big 10 returning in 1989.

LINEBACKERS: Brownlow returns at an inside linebacker position after leading the Big 10 in 1988 with 155 tackles. He will again be a Butkus Award candidate, symbolic of the best linebacker in the country. Teammate Steve Glasson (6-2, 221, Sr.) was credited with 102 tackles in 1988 and returns for his fourth year as a starter for the Illini. Bill Henkel (6-1, 209, Jr.), Kurt Gregus (6-0, 223, Sr.) and Jason Guard (6-2, 239, Sr.) should all receive playing time at the inside linebacker position, to make it one of the deepest on the team. Romero Brice (6-3, 208, Jr.) and Julyon Brown (6-3, 209, So.) return at one outside linebacker position while Brian Williams (6-3, 240, Sr.) will move from defensive tackle to the rush linebacker spot. Tepper on Brownlow: "Darrick doesn't fit the typical linebacker mold because of his height, but he is a very hard worker and an outstanding football player. He is a great instinctive player who plays with tremendous enthusiasm. I've coached many NFL linebackers and Darrick has the ability to be as good. He was first-team All-Big 10 last year and should again be a finalist for the Butkus Award."

SECONDARY: In the defensive secondary, three of the four starters from the All American Bowl return and will be led by Marlon Primous (6-2, 209, So.), who is one of the most exciting defensive backs in the Big 10. In his first collegiate season, Primous finished fourth on the team in tackles with 93, and led the team in three other categories — passes-broken-up, touchdown saves and interceptions. Cornerbacks Chris Green (5-11, 184, Jr.) and Henry Jones (6-0, 193, Jr.) will provide experience in the defensive backfield. Quintin Parker (6-1, 191, Jr.) came out of spring practice as the starting strong safety with converted running back Mark Qualls (5-9, 178, So.) and Fred Cox (5-11, 189, Fr.) fighting for the backup spot. Additional help for the '89 season will come from such top '88 reserves as Pat Donnelly (6-1, 195, Jr.), Greg Boysaw (6-1, 204, Sr.), Jerry Hamner (6-0, 192, Jr.) and Mike Hopkins (5-10, 188, So.). Tepper on Primous: "Marlon has great athletic ability at free safety. He had an outstanding freshman season and he is being picked for all-star honors this season. He has good instincts and determination." Tepper on Green: "Chris doesn't get a lot of attention at the cornerback position but he has the knack for making the big plays as evidenced in the Indiana game when he knocked the ball from the Indiana quarterback in the final minutes. He's a quiet player with great speed and also a hard hitter."

KICKING GAME: The Illini also enjoy experience and depth in the kicking game. Doug Higgins (6-0, 180, Jr.) made all 27 of his extra point attempts and was successful on 10 of 14 field goal attempts. Chris Siambekos (6-3, 190, Sr.), who led the Illini in scoring as a freshman, will return to battle Higgins for kicking duties. Brian Menkhausen (6-4, 204, Sr.) handled all punting duties in '88 and averaged 36.5 yards per kick. Kevin Breaux (6-1, 205, Jr.), a junior college transfer who sat out last season, will battle Menkhausen for the No. 1 punting job.

LOOKING AHEAD: Illinois adds four new opponents to the 1989 schedule, all of which played in bowl games in 1988. Despite these tough additions, Mackovic feels it will be an exciting season. "Certainly our schedule for 1989 is going to be more difficult than 1988, but we look forward to playing some new opponents," he said. "It will be an exciting start to a season which I believe will provide many thrills for our fans. Big 10 football in 1989 will be the best it has been in many years and we are looking forward to being a part of it. The race for the 1990 Rose Bowl is going to be tighter than ever and I really look forward to the challenge of being in that title game right down at the stretch again."

Game #1

September 3, 1988, Memorial Stadium, Champaign, IL (54,458)

Illinois 7

Washington State 44

A senior-dominated Washington State squad rolled into Champaign-Urbana and spoiled John Mackovic's Illinois head coaching debut. The Cougars rolled up 601 yards in total offense behind one of the nation's leading quarterbacks, Timm Rosenbach, and the rushing of backs Steve Broussard (180 yards) and Rich Swinton (116 yards). The Illinois attack was led by senior running back Keith Jones' and sophomore fullback Howard Griffith's 68 and 85 rushing yards respectively. Griffith scored the only Illini touchdown on 53-yard dash in the second quarter. Quarterback Jeff George started his career at Illinois with 19 of 31 passing for 143 yards.

Game #2

September 10, 1988, Sun Devil Stadium, Tempe, AZ (70,091)

Illinois 16

Arizona State 21

The Fighting Illini traveled to Tempe, AZ to take on the Sun Devils of Arizona State in sweltering 102 degree heat in front of 70,091 fans. The Sun Devils jumped to a 21-7 lead before Illinois scored a touchdown late in the third quarter on a halfback pass from Keith Jones to Steven Williams. The Illini twice threatened to score late in the game, but were stopped both times before Sun Devil quarterback Dan Ford ran out of the end zone on the final play of the game to set the final score at 21-16. Keith Jones led the running attack with 78 yards while Jeff George completed 19 of 31 passes for 178 yards and one touchdown.

Game #3

September 17, 1988, Memorial Stadium, Champaign, IL (54,002)

Illinois 35

Utah 24

The explosive Utes invaded Champaign with one of the best young quarterbacks in the country in sophomore Scott Mitchell. But it was Illinois that showed an explosive offense by combining a powerful running attack with a precision passing game. The Illini ran up 513 yards of total offense compared to 387 for the Utes. The Illini placed two runners over 100 yards in the same game for the first time since 1985 when Keith Jones rushed for 186 yards and Howard Griffith joined him over the century mark with 148 yards. Griffith also registered the longest Illini run from scrimmage since 1965 when he broke one for 78 yards in the second quarter. Illinois held onto a 28-11 lead at halftime and withstood a Mitchell blitz in the second half before finally putting the game away with Keith Jones' 53-yard dash with 1:40 remaining in the fourth quarter. Jeff George again had a solid day passing with 13 completions in 23 attempts for 165 yards.

Game #4

October 1, 1988 at Ohio Stadium, Columbus, OH (90,274)

Illinois 31 Ohio State 12

The Fighting Illini traveled to Ohio State to battle the Buckeyes (before 90,274 fans) where they had not won since 1967. The Illini started off the scoring with a 24-yard pass from Jeff George to Steven Williams and held on to a 10-3 lead at half after the Buckeyes' Pat O'Morrow and Illini's Doug Higgins traded field goals. O'Morrow made things difficult for the Bucks as he connected on only 2 of 5 field goal attempts. Illinois' break of the day came with 12:21 left in the fourth quarter when Pat Donnelly recovered a fumbled punt snap in the end zone to extend the Illini lead to 24-6 before Howard Griffith salted it away with his second touchdown of the day with less than four minutes remaining in the game to make the final score 31-12. Senior safety Mark Kelly took Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week honors by intercepting a fumble and sacking Ohio State quarterback Greg Frey twice. Jones ended the game with 80 yards rushing and quarterback Jeff George finished with 18 completions on 27 attempts for 224 yards and one touchdown.

It was the Fighting Illini defense's turn to show off with a 20-0 shutout over the Boilermakers of Purdue. The Fighting Illini allowed only six first downs and 91 total yards by the Boilermaker offense (49 rushing and 42 passing). On the offensive side of the ball, the Illini ran up 422 total yards, and for the second time this season Keith Jones and Howard Griffith both rushed for more than 100 yards with 130 and 119 respectively. George completed 15 of 34 passes for 152 yards and one touchdown. The Illini posted their first three-game winning streak since the Rose Bowl season of 1983.

Game #6

October 15, 1988 at Camp Randall Stadium, Madison, WI (57,886)

Illinois 34

Wisconsin 6

On a nearly perfect fall day, the Illini invaded Camp Randall Stadium with the hopes of running their winning streak to four games, including their third in a row in the Big Ten. On Illinois' second possession, it executed a 10-play, 72-yard drive to score the first touchdown. Wisconsin's Robb Mehring kicked two field goals to narrow the Illini lead at the half to 7-6. The second half was all Illinois, though, as Jeff George followed Doug Higgins' 23-yard field goal with a 50-yard bomb to Shawn Wax before two Keith Jones touchdown runs sandwiched another Higgins field goal to make the final score 34-6. George finished the day with the first 300-yard passing day of his career, ending with 306 yards and one touchdown on 19 of 32 passing. Jones ended the game with 97 yards rushing and three touchdowns on only 12 carries.

Game #7

October 22, 1988, Memorial Stadium, Champaign, IL (65,771)

Illinois 21 Michigan State 28

The Spartans invaded Memorial Stadium as Illinois celebrated its 78th Homecoming, a tradition that was started on the University of Illinois campus. The defending Big Ten and Rose Bowl champions entered the game 1-4-1 after playing an extremely rough pre-conference and early Big Ten schedule. The Illini opened the scoring after Michigan State fumbled a Brian Menkhausen punt that was recovered by Doug Amaya at the Spartan 25-yard line. Jeff George capitalized with a touchdown pass to Shawn Wax from the four yard line. After a Spartan punt, George again led the Illini to a touchdown after a 69-yard, 11 play drive that ended with a Howard Griffith one-yard plunge. MSU scored a touchdown in the second quarter on a Blake Ezor 4 yard run to make the half time score 14-7. The second half was nearly all Michigan State as the Spartans scored three touchdowns on two passes by Bobby McAllister and the second of two touchdowns by Blake Ezor. The Illini's Keith Jones scored on a one-yard plunge with :24 left on the clock to set the final score. Illinois ended with 24 first downs and 388 yards total offense compared to Michigan State's 10 and 274. Jones ended the game as Illinois' leading rusher with 58 yards and Jeff George completed 35 of 55 passes for 316 yards and one touchdown. Keith Jones also had the second best receiving day in Illinois history with 13 receptions for a season-high 119 yards. The loss was Illinois' first in Big Ten play and dropped the team's overall record to 4-3.

Illinois 27 Minnesota 27

At Minnesota, the Golden Gophers would not prove to be an easy opponent, even though they stood 0-3-1 in Big Ten play. After the opening kickoff, freshman quarterback Scott Schaffner led the Gophers on a 74-yard, 16-play drive to give them an early 7-0 lead. Illinois came back to score 24 unanswered points which was capped off by a 4-yard touchdown pass from Jeff George to Jeff Finke. The Gophers came back with 20 unanswered points of their own with the last three coming on a Brent Berglund 46-yard field goal with only :51 left on the clock to take a 27-24 lead. Jeff George and the Illini were not to be denied, however. George took the Illini 42 yards on six plays to set up a 44-yard field goal by Doug Higgins with :01 left on the clock that left the score tied at 27-27. Jeff George had the best passing game of his career with 343 yards passing after completing 28 of 42 attempts.

Game #9

November 5, 1988, Memorial Stadium, Champaign, IL (66,201)

Illinois 21 Indiana 20

Indiana took the opening kickoff and drove 73 yards behind All-America running back Anthony Thompson's 42 yards rushing on 9 carries, including a one-yard plunge for Indiana's first score. The extra-point was good and Indiana took an early 7-0 lead. The Hoosiers then finished off first half scoring with a Pete Stoyanovich 28-yard field goal. The Illini dodged bullet after bullet in the first half by intercepting two passes deep in their own territory and recovering a Thompson fumble. Illinois got back into the game in the middle of the third quarter when Jeff George hit Mike Bellamy with a 31-yard scoring pass and followed that with a blocked punt by Patrick Donnelly that rolled through the end zone and brought the score to 10-9. Stoyanovich kicked his second field goal of the game early in the fourth quarter to give the Hoosiers a 13-9 lead. The Illini came back with a drive that was intended to give them their first lead of the game, but a fluke interception of a George pass that appeared to be stolen from Keith Jones' arms by Erick Coleman of Indiana was returned 47 yards for a touchdown, and it appeared as though the Hoosiers had wrapped up their seventh victory of the season. The Illini picked themselves up from the floor and drove to the 21-yard line where on fourth down and four yards to go, George hit Shawn Wax in the end zone for a spectacular shoestring grab to pull the Illini within five points at 20-15. A conversion try for two points failed. On the first play after receiving the kickoff from Illinois, Indiana quarterback Dave Schnell kept the ball on a bootleg down the right sideline where he was hit by defensive back Chris Green and fumbled the ball into the waiting arms of linebacker Julyon Brown. With less than two minutes remaining in the game, the Illini suddenly found themselves at the Indiana 31 yard line and a chance to pull out a miracle win. George used a quick run up the middle by Jones for 14 yards to direct the Illini to the 17 yard line. From there the Illini mixed passes and runs to set up a five-yard touchdown pass from George to Bellamy for the winning score. The Illini had turned in one of the most stunning victories in school history and kept alive the hopes for a post-season bowl berth. Jones finished the game with 149 yards on 25 carries while George finished with 177 yards and three touchdowns on 19-40 passing. The win moved Illinois to 5-3-1 on the season and a showdown with Michigan for the Big Ten championship the following week.

Game #10

November 12, 1988 at Michigan Stadium, Ann Arbor, MI (105,000)

Illinois 9 Michigan 38

The Illini travelled to Michigan to play against the Wolverines in front of more than 105,000 fans. Hopes for a perfect game were dashed early as the Wolverines performed a play from punt formation for 22 yards and a first down at the Illini 23-yard line. Michigan cashed in for the touchdown and came right back to intercept Jeff George's first pass of the game to set up a field goal and make the score 10-0. Illinois came back to sandwich two Doug Higgins field goals around a Michigan touchdown to end the first half scoring at 17-6. The Wolverines put the game away in the second half with the game ending at 38-9. Keith Jones rushed for 105 yards to give him a season's total of 990 yards. George completed 16 of 28 passes for 135 yards. Linebacker Darrick Brownlow continued his fantastic sophomore campaign with 16 tackles to jump back into the lead among Big Ten defensive players and freshman Marlon Primous finished with 17 tackles for the most tackles by an Illini this season.

Game #11

November 19, 1988, Memorial Stadium, Champaign, IL (42,329)

Illinois 14 Northwestern 9

The Illini went into the final game of the regular season against the Northwestern Wildcats knowing that a victory would take them to Birmingham and a meeting with Florida in the 12th annual All American Bowl. The game started like it was going to be a blow-out as Illinois scored two touchdowns in the first quarter to jump out to a 14-0 lead. The first touchdown was set up after a 57-yard dash by Keith Jones that pushed his rushing total to over 1000 yards on the season. The touchdown came on a 11-yard halfback pass by Jones to quarterback Jeff George. The Illini came back to score their second touchdown on a 6-yard Howard Griffith burst. That score would have to stand up, though, as Illinois would not score the rest of the game. The Wildcats could manage only three field goals against the tough Illinois defense as the final score ended 14-9. On the final drive, freshman safety Marlon Primous made two game-saving plays to secure the victory. On third down from the Illinois 24, Northwestern quarterback Greg Bradshaw tried to hit Richard Buchanan in the end zone with a pass that was broken up by Primous. On the next play, Bradshaw hit a wide-open Bob Griswold (on the three yard line) who turned upfield for an apparent touchdown. Primous met him at the goal line with a vicious tackle that separated the ball from Griswold. The ball was batted into the air before linebacker Darrick Brownlow pounced on the loose ball at the Illinois one yard line to preserve the victory and a trip to Birmingham. The Fighting Illini finished the season with a 6-4-1 record, including a 5-2-1 record and third place finish in the Big Ten.

Quarterback Jeff George grabbed an 11-yard touchdown pass from running back Keith Jones to give Illinois an early lead against Northwestern.

Game #12 — All American Bowl

December 29, 1988 at Legion Field, Birmingham, Ala (42,890)

Illinois 10

Florida 14

The Florida Gators and Fighting Illini hooked up in the 12th Annual All American Bowl in what everyone thought was going to be a high-scoring affair. What the fans and a national television audience saw was a hard-fought defensive struggle between the young defensive squad of Illinois and one of the nation's top-ranked defenses in Florida. All-American running back Emmitt Smith started the game with a 55-yard touchdown run on the first play from scrimmage to give the Gators an early 7-0 lead. Illinois senior running back Keith Jones countered in the second quarter with 30-yard touchdown scamper of his own that was set up with an interception by linebacker Steve Glasson. The score stayed at 7-7 until the 8:55 mark of the fourth quarter when Illini kicker Doug Higgins booted a 44-yard field goal to give Illinois a 10-7 lead. The Gator's Smith would not be denied, however, as he scored on a 2-yard touchdown run with 4:28 left in the game give Florida the lead, 14-10. Smith's touchdown run was set up by an incredible 16-yard dash on third down. Illini quarterback Jeff George took the ball and marched downfield before the drive ended on fourth down at the Florida 35. The Illini played the fourth quarter without leading rusher Keith Jones who left the game with a sprained ankle. Jones ended the game with 88 yards rushing while George finished with 194 yards passing by completing 20 of 37 passes. Emmitt Smith was named the game's Most Valuable Player after rushing for 159 yards and two touchdowns.

Illinois Football: A Rich Tradition

■ ILLINOIS FOOTBALL:
A RICH TRADITION

■ COVERING THE
STATE OF ILLINOIS

Chief Illiniwek

One of the most colorful and dramatic traditions associated with college athletics is the dance of the University of Illinois' Chief Illiniwek. Since 1926, the Chief has been a fixture at football and basketball games. Whether leading the band onto the field at Memorial Stadium or exploding from the tunnel of Assembly Hall, the Chief is sure to put on a performance not soon forgotten.

Chief Illiniwek was created when Assistant Band Director Ray Dvorak conceived the idea of performing a Native American war dance at halftime of the Pennsylvania - Illinois football game in 1926 at Philadelphia. Lester Leutwiler, a student interested in Native American lore, was chosen to perform the first dance. Wearing a homemade Native American costume, Leutwiler's performance was so well received that he was asked to continue his dance throughout the 1926 season. He remained Chief for the following two seasons and in 1929, Webber Borchers became the second Chief.

Borchers believes the name Chief Illiniwek (Ill-LYE-nye-wek) was suggested by Illini football coach Robert Zuppke. It was Borchers who first appeared as Chief in an authentic Native American costume. He initiated a campaign to raise money to replace his homemade costume with an authentic one, but due to the Depression, he received only $15. A Champaign merchant stepped in to fund the rest and Borchers was off to South Dakota and the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation. He recalls, "In the summer of 1930 I went, at my own expense, to the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota. I hitch-hiked out, called on an Indian agent and explained my mission. He and an Indian trader called in an older Sioux Indian woman. She and two younger women made the suit."

Borchers' initial plans were to bring the suit back in time for the first game, but it would not be ready in time. In the seventh game of the season, Army vs. Illinois in New York's Yankee Stadium, Borchers made the first appearance as Chief Illiniwek in authentic costume. The date was November 8, 1930.

Since that date, five different authentic costumes have been used by Chief Illiniwek; the most recent being purchased in 1983 from 93-year-old Native American Chief Frank Fools Crow.

The elaborately-beaded costume included moccasins, blanket, peace pipe, pouch, breastplate, and a war bonnet with 90 eagle feathers. Included on the bonnet are the names of every Chief of the past (including Princess Illiniwek Idelle Stitch, who assumed the position in 1943, during WW II). The dance itself is an actual series of Native American steps with each person adding their own individual touch. The current Chief is Tom Livingston, a senior from LaGrange, Illinois.

Memorial Stadium

Constructed in 1923, Memorial Stadium, home of the "Fighting Illini" football team, was built as a memorial to Illinois men who gave their lives for their country during World War I. The men's names appear on 200 columns that support the east and west sides of the stadium.

Donations of approximately $1.7 million made by more than 200,000 students, alumni and other friends of the University, made the construction possible. The Athletic Association later allocated $509,805 to the project for the construction of the south stand and other stadium additions.

The stadium opened November 3, 1923, when Illinois defeated Chicago 7-0 in a Homecoming victory. The stadium was dedicated officially October 18, 1924, a day that Illinois not only defeated Michigan 39-14 for a Homecoming victory, but Harold "Red" Grange accounted for six touchdowns. In the first 12 minutes of that game, Grange ran for a total of 265 yards and scored four times. He had his hands on the ball only six times and left the field before the end of the first quarter.

In the third quarter, Grange returned and ran 13 yards for his fifth touchdown, and in the final period he passed to Marion Leonard for this sixth score of the day. In 42 minutes of playing time, Grange gained a total of 402 yards, carried the ball 21 times and also completed six passes for 64 yards. Legendary coach Amos Alonzo Stagg called it "the most spectacular single-handed performance ever delivered in a major game."

Permanent seating capacity of Memorial Stadium is 67,320, but capacity can be increased to 69,200 through the addition of temporary bleachers. During the '80s, Memorial Stadium has seen 27 consecutive sell-outs. The single-game attendance record is 78,297 for a 1984 victory over Missouri.

Seventy-one percent of Memorial Stadium seats are between the goal posts with 18,000 in each stand, 10,000 in each balcony and 10,700 in the south stand horseshoe.

Installation of the first artificial turf and a new lighting system was made possible through a 1974 Golden Anniversary campaign drive. The lights make evening games and practices, as well as intramural competition possible.

Other stadium improvements include the 1967 installation of a press box, located at the top of the west balcony; construction of the Ray Eliot Varsity Room, a training table and trophy display area at the southeast corner of the stadium that was built with funds donated by friends of the Athletic Association; a million-dollar stadium renovation project in 1972 that included the addition of aluminum seating and other improvements; a 1977 renovation of the varsity locker rooms and trainer facilities; and a computerized message board installed in 1981 at the north end of the stadium.

In April 1985, $7 million worth of improvements began. Out of this project has come installation of new artificial turf and expansion of the football headquarters in the northeast corner of the stadium. The current artificial surface has the largest vertical drainage system of any synthetic surface in the United States, and is the largest collegiate synthetic playing surface in the nation.

The Memorial Stadium Practice Dome, more commonly known as "The Bubble", was inflated for the first time in December, 1985, and the Illini's new locker room facilities opened before the 1986 season. Illinois' record in Memorial Stadium is 177-147-14 beginning the 1989 season.

Illinois Football: A Rich Tradition

When you think of the tradition of Illinois football, names such as Butkus and Grange come to mind. But the tradition of Illinois football is not just names out of the past, but great teams, great games and winning football.

Illinois is known for being a school of "firsts," the first collegiate Homecoming game, the first marching band, the first Dad's Day, and the first card section. Legendary Illini coach Robert Zuppke was credited with inventing the screen pass, spring practice, the forward and backward lateral pass and the huddle.

The Rich Tradition of Illinois Football includes such great memories of Red Grange running around and through the Michigan defense in the Memorial Stadium dedication game in 1924, the doubleheader of 1932, the Thanksgiving Day game that clinched the Big Ten championship and Rose Bowl berth in 1963 and the 1983 Big Ten championship team, the only squad to defeat all nine conference opponents in the same season.

Nearly 60 players have earned All-America honors over the years, besides Grange, other Illini All-Americans include Alex Agase, Dick Butkus, Claude "Buddy" Young, J. C. Caroline, Jim Grabowski, Scott Studwell, Tony Eason, Jim Juriga and David Williams. More than 200 Illini players have earned All-Big 10 acclaim with many being named to the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame.

Red Grange became a legend by accounting for six touchdowns versus Michigan in the 1924 Memorial Stadium dedication game

The First Game

Football made its debut on the University of Illinois campus in 1890 when student Scott Williams organized the sport on the varsity level. Williams had played a pick-up game of football on the high school level in Normal, IL before introducing it at the U of I.

The first Illinois team, with Williams as coach and captain, lost its first two games against Illinois Wesleyan and Purdue, but came back to beat Wesleyan 12-6 in the final game of the season to finish with a 1-2 mark.

One of the members of that first team was George Huff, who would later bring great distinction to the school's athletic programs as the University's Athletic Director.

Football quickly captured the fancy of Illinois students. In the second year of competition, the Fighting Illini were unbeaten in six games, winning the Illinois Intercollegiate League championship.

Illinois soon became associated with the Western Conference, the forerunner of the Big Ten. The Illini won their first Western Conference title in 1910, going unbeaten and unscored upon.

In 1913, Huff hired Robert Zuppke as head coach of the Fighting Illini. Under Zuppke, Illinois won conference championships in 1914 and 1915 and captured two more titles in 1918 and 1919. The 1914 team shared the mythical national championship with Army after finishing with a perfect 7-0 record. National titles were also awarded to Illinois in 1919, 1923 and 1927. In all, the Illini have won or shared 13 Big 10 football championships.

Big Ten Conference

The Big Ten Conference is the premier collegiate athletic conference in the country as packed stadiums, tradition, and great names have graced conference football fields for nearly a century. The Big Ten has sent at least four teams to bowl games for eight consecutive years as five different schools have won the past six conference championships.

Formed in 1896 by faculty representatives from the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University, Purdue University and University of Wisconsin, the Big Ten Conference is the oldest intercollegiate conference in the nation.

Indiana University and the University of Iowa were admitted to membership in 1899 and Ohio State University joined in 1912. Chicago withdrew in 1946 while Michigan State University was admitted in 1949. The Conference's extended family boasts more than two million living alumni, living around the world, thus adding to the interest and popularity of Big Ten athletics.

The Big Ten Conference, which enters its 94th year of intercollegiate football, enjoys the richest of traditions. For 32 of the last 33 years, Big Ten attendance has led the nation with an average of more than 64,000 people taking in a Conference contest in 1988.

The 1989 season marks the 94th consecutive year of football competition in the Big Ten and this season promises more of what Big Ten football has stood for over the years....action, excitement and pageantry.

The Rose Bowl

The Big 10 Champion wins the honor to represent the conference against the Pacific-10 Conference each year in "The Granddaddy of Them All" — the Rose Bowl.

The 1990 Rose Bowl at Pasadena, CA will be the 43rd annual meeting between the Champions of the Big 10 and Pac-10 football conferences.

The Rose Bowl experience represents the ultimate in pageantry and color with the festive Tournament of Roses Parade and the nation's premier bowl contest.

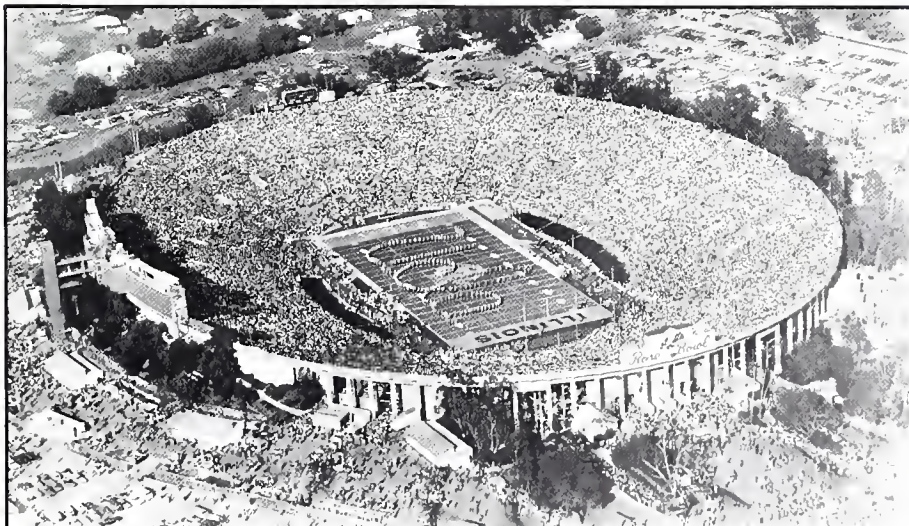

The University of Illinois has participated in four Rose Bowl games, including the first played between the Big 10 and Pac-10 conferences in 1952. That 1952 victory over Stanford was the first national network telecast of any bowl game or college football game. Illinois has won three of the four Rose Bowl games it has played giving it the best winning percentage of any Big 10 school that has participated in the classic sporting event.

Traditional Series Trophies

"ILLIBUCK"

(Ohio State—Since 1925)

"Illibuck" is—or was—a turtle, destined for long life, it was hoped. But the wear and tear of traveling between Champaign-Urbana and Columbus was too much, even for a hardy marine reptile. "Illibuck" died in the spring of 1927 and his successor is now a wooden replica. Members of two junior honorary societies, Bucket and Dipper of Ohio State and Sachem of Illinois, annually meet at halftime of the Illini/Buckeye game to smoke the peace pipe and present the "Illibuck" trophy to last year's winning school.

The Fighting Illini of 1983 advanced to the 1984 Rose Bowl by becoming the first team in conference history to defeat all nine other schools in the same season.

"CANNON"

(Purdue—Since 1943)

The "Cannon", more accurately known as the "Purdue Cannon", made its first trip to Champaign-Urbana in 1905 when a group of Purdue students brought it to fire after a Boilermaker victory. Purdue won the game 29-0, but the "Cannon" was never fired. Illinois student Quincy Hall found the "Cannon" hidden near the old Illinois Field. Hall and a group of Delta Upsilon brothers confiscated the "Cannon" and held it until 1943 when they donated it as a symbol of the Illinois/Purdue rivalry.

"TOMAHAWK"

(Northwestern—Since 1945)

The story of the Illinois/Northwestern trophy dates back to 1945 when the staff members of the two student newspapers conceived the idea of a wooden Indian, "Sweet Sioux."

In September of 1946, "Sweet Sioux" was stolen from a showcase at Northwestern. A Tomahawk trophy was inaugurated in 1947 to replace the wooden Indian and has been used ever since. "Sweet Sioux" was found in 1948, but was discarded because of its bulk.

Illinois Retired Numbers

#50 Dick Butkus

1962-64

Linebacker/Center

Number Retired in 1986

Perhaps the greatest linebacker ever to play the game, Dick Butkus said all he ever wanted to do was play football. And play football he did. Butkus' former coach, Pete Elliott, said, "All the greats have the natural physical talent. Dick was so strong and agile and possessed great quickness. His biggest attributes, however, were his instincts and his desire. No one wanted to play the game of football as much as Dick Butkus."

NFL Hall of Famer Paul Hornung had tremendous respect for Butkus,

The 1914 Fighting Illini football squad is the first of four mythical national championship teams to play for the University of Illinois and finished with a perfect 7-0 record saying, "Dick would not only tackle you, he would consume you. He never missed a tackle and you knew anytime you ran the ball that Butkus would be in on the tackle."

Butkus is a member of the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame and the trophy for college football's top linebacker each year is appropriately called the "Butkus Award." Dick Butkus is a legend in college and pro football and he remains the standard for defensive players to strive for.

#77 Harold "Red" Grange

1923-25
Halfback
Number Retired in 1925

Harold "Red" Grange, "The Galloping Ghost," put Illinois football on the map in the mid-twenties. Perhaps famed sportswriter Grantland Rice best described Grange when he wrote:

"A streak of fire, a breath of flame,
Eluding all who reach and clutch,
A gray ghost thrown into the game
That rival hands may never touch;
A rubber bounding, blasting soul,
Whose destination is the goal—
Red Grange of Illinois."

Illinois fans will always remember Grange dashing through the Michigan defense for five touchdowns in the first twelve minutes of the game in 1924 to lead the Illini to victory in the dedication game at Memorial Stadium.

Said former Illini coach Bob Zuppke, "Grange was a genius of motion. He ran with no wasted motion. Generations to come will produce their great runners, but only Grange's name will be immortal."

Grange's number 77 was retired after his final game at Illinois in 1925. Grange was a charter member of both the Pro Football Hall of Fame and its collegiate counterpart, the National Football Foundation.

The University of Illinois is credited with starting the tradition of Homecoming in 1910 when the Fighting Illini defeated Chicago 3-0

"Hall of Fame"

Illinois has had four coaches inducted into the Hall of Fame. They are Edward K. Hall (1892-1893), George Woodruff (1903), Robert Zuppke (1913-1941), and Bob Blackman (1971-1976).

Covering the Fighting Illini

Press Information

Credentials

Print, photo and electronic media representatives should request credentials in writing on company letterhead at least one week in advance of the event(s) they wish to cover. The requests should indicate the specific type of credential desired, and should be addressed to:

Director of Sports Information

University of Illinois Division of Intercollegiate Athletics
115 Assembly Hall
1800 S. First Street
Champaign, IL 61820

Space in the working area of the pressbox at the University of Illinois Memorial Stadium is assigned by the Sports Information Office for working media personnel only. Any spouses, children, sponsors or other non-working personnel will be escorted from the press box. Media credential requests for Illini road games should be addressed to the sports information director of the host institution.

In cases of short notice, credentials will be left at the "Will Call" window located at the West Information Booth at the midpoint of Memorial Stadium's west side, not at the press door. No parking permits will be left at the "Will Call" window. Persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable.

Fax Service

Limited fax service is available through the Sports Information Office. Please contact a representative of the Sports Information Office for further details.

Interviews

The visiting coach will be available for interviews following each game in an area adjacent to the visitor's locker room in the northwest corner of Memorial Stadium. Visiting players will be available subject to their team's policy. Illinois coach John Mackovic and selected Illinois players will be brought into the interview room (Squad Room), which is located on the ground floor of the football facility in the northeast corner of Memorial Stadium. A member of the Illinois sports information staff will escort members of the media to each interview area and will leave the press box with approximately three minutes remaining in the game. Player interview requests should be given to the sports information staff of the appropriate team prior to the conclusion of the game.

Illini players and coaches are available for short in-person interviews on Tuesdays during the season. Telephone interviews will be coordinated with coaches' and players' schedules. Media requests for interviews and/or to attend practices must be made through the sports information office. Interview requests for Coach John Mackovic or any member of his staff will be coordinated through the Director of Sports Information; player interviews will be coordinated through the Sports Information Office ([217] 333-1390). Coach Mackovic will also participate in a weekly press luncheon, along with the Big 10 Coaches Teleconference. For information on both please see Press Luncheons and Big 10 Teleconferences. Those interested in (audio) taping grouped interviews after games, or at the press luncheons, should connect their recorders to the distribution amplifier provided by Sports Information. Output from the device is microphone level, terminated in 1/8" two-conductor plugs and jacks, or 3-pin standard microphone male connectors.

Media Services

Media personnel covering Illinois football at Memorial Stadium will be furnished with game programs, press guides, flip cards and pre-game information sheets. Complete play-by-plays, half time and final statistics will be distributed to each assigned location in the press box. Food and drinks for working media are available on the second level of the press box.

Parking Passes

Parking passes are available for working media personnel upon request of the Sports Information Office. Press parking is available in the Blue Lot west of First Street, the street which is situated on the west side of Memorial Stadium. All members of the media must travel south on First Street in order to reach the PRESS PARKING LOT (see map). First Street is a one-way street going south prior to games and one-way north afterwards. To avoid traffic delays, members of the media should plan on being in the pressbox at least one hour prior to kick-off time. Sports information student assistants will have the use of golf carts to help move members of the media and their equipment from the parking lot to the press entrance. The press entrance is located midway on the west side of Memorial Stadium at the orange door marked "Press Gate." A press credential must be visible to gain admittance to the stadium.

Photo Passes

All photographers are to report to the Press Entrance upon their arrival at Memorial Stadium to receive a photo armband. All photographers must work only in the designated areas around the perimeter of the playing field. Photographers who plan to work on the sidelines must enter the stadium at the Press Entrance on the west side. Food and drinks will be

Telephones

Telephone lines in the pressbox must be ordered at least one week in advance of the game(s) for which they are needed. The orders should be addressed to Tony Mangano of Illinois Bell; he can be reached at (312) 727-5194 during regular business hours. No telephone lines or telephone instruments are available through the Sports Information Office. Five credit card telephones are located in the center section of Row 2 in Level One of the pressbox. In addition, a pay telephone is located on Level Two of the press box.

In-season Illinois Football Updates

(Subject to Change)

Members of the media have a number of options when it comes to staying abreast of developments concerning Illinois football in 1989.

Press luncheons:

All media persons who regularly cover Illinois football are invited to these weekly sessions, usually held at the Ray Eliot Varsity Room located in the southeast corner of Memorial Stadium every Tuesday during the football season. Parking is available in the Assembly Hall parking lot in the northeast quadrant with an entrance off Fourth Street. Coach Mackovic and selected players will be available for interviews, as will opposing coaches (by telephone hookup). The luncheons get underway at 11 a.m. with the start of the Big 10 Coaches Teleconference, and conclude by 1 p.m.

Big 10 Teleconferences:

These take place each Tuesday starting September 12, and begin at 11 a.m. CT. Portions of these teleconferences will be heard (starting at 11 a.m.) at the Tuesday luncheons (mentioned above). Full replays of the teleconferences will be played starting each Tuesday at 4 p.m. CT. Coach Mackovic's 10-minute slot on the teleconference is scheduled to begin at 12:10 p.m. CT. Please contact the Illinois Sports Information Office or the Big Ten Service Bureau ([312] 605-8933) for teleconference access information.

Big 10 Satellite Uplink:

The Big 10 will provide a 30-minute video highlight service via satellite uplink. Television stations can preview the coming weeks' Big 10 games each Thursday. For satellite coordinates or more information, please contact either the Big 10 Service Bureau ([312] 605-8933) or the Illinois Sports Information Office ([217] 333-1390).

John Mackovic Show

This weekly 30-minute television program features game highlights and interviews with coaches, players and others involved in the Illinois football program. Viewers should consult their local listings for the days and times of the telecasts, which are tentatively scheduled to be carried on the following stations:

WCIA, Channel 3, Champaign
 WOAD, Channel 8, Moline
 WYZZ, Channel 43, Peoria-Bloomington
 WQRF, Channel 39, Rockford
 WCCE, Channel 13, Mt. Vernon

The Illini Today

This daily (Monday through Friday) radio vignette is heard on the 47-station Illini Sports (Radio) Network (see station list for live play-by-play). The program features interesting tidbits about football and other University of Illinois athletic programs. Listeners should check their local listings for the broadcast times in their specific areas.
